

American Higher Education Experience

July 15th to Aug. 5th, 2015

This is a certification program for the academic development of college students offered by the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (UIUC). UIUC is very famous for its top ranking departments and majors and it has 22 Nobel Laureates and 20 Pulitzer Prize recipients. It has the second largest university library in United States after Harvard University. Join this program, you will have opportunity to meet world leading professors in your field as well as visiting the pioneering research facilities in your field.

Date: July 15th to Aug. 5th, 2016

Location: College of Education, University of Illinois

Program Focus

- How to apply for top graduate school
- Academic writing
- How to conduct research
- How to lead a classroom discussion
- Career Development: How to develop your resume
- Presentation skills: How to present at conferences
- How to succeed in graduate school: Dos and don'ts in American university

Program Cost

The three-week certification program costs $5000 including all the courses, housing, two meals a day, cultural excursion trips, and shopping trips in Chicago, Springfield and surrounding cities. One week trip (after the three-week program) to East Coast including Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, Niagara Falls, and New York is available at additional cost of $1000.

Who to contact:

M. Allison Witt, Ph.D.
College of Education
1310 S. Sixth St.
Champaign, IL 61822
1-217-300-5195
awitt1@illinois.edu

Who to contact:

Wei Liu, Ph.D.
College of Education, RM 120A
1310 S. Sixth St.
Champaign, IL 61822
1-217-300-4141
weiliu1@illinois.edu